Attention is invited to this office letter under reference above in connection with the subject matter.

Now, for quick disposal of compassionate grounds appointment cases, the matter has been further reviewed by the competent authority (PCPO) and decided as under:-

1. In most routine / normal compassionate grounds appointment cases, verification of educational certificates of the candidate may be done at school / college level. (Whenever, if possible online verification may be done parallelly if no extra expence are involved).

2. In compassionate grounds appointment cases which are old, candidate passed from Open School, mark sheets are not clear, passing in Compartmental/several attempt etc. , where public school leaving certificates are not clear or cases where discripancies / doubts arise etc., all such cases educational documents may be also verified with Education Board / University.
