

MERI SAHELI

“Meri Saheli” teams consisting of 473 lady officers and staff are deployed at 15 important railway stations for assisting women passengers travelling alone in trains as well as to ensure their safety and security from originating to destination station. The team attends 75 trains over Eastern Railway. 14 Tablets have been provided to Meri Saheli Team for updating of data.

In addition, “Matangani Squads” consisting of 56 lady officers and staff are deployed daily at 25 important Railway stations particularly for Sub-urban section to check coaches reserved for women passengers and ensure their security.

Presently 156 Mail/Express, 165 EMU/DMU/MEMU, 06 passenger trains and 14 ladies special trains are escorted by RPF for safety and security of passengers including women passengers in railways. Out of these 74 trains are escorted jointly by both male and female staff.