Explanatory Note :

Definition of Dependents :

'Dependent relatives', for these rules will include all such persons as are eligible for passess under the Pass Rules and will thus include :

1. Mother/step-mother, if a widow;
2. unmarried or widowed sisters or step-sisters if father is not alive.
3. Brother/step-brother under 21 years of age, if father is not alive.

Provided that the above are wholly dependent on and reside with the Railway employee. The words 'wholly dependent' means a person who does not have independent income more than 15% of the emoluments of the Railway servant concerned or Rs. 1500/- plus dearness relief thereon, which ever is more.

Note : (i) The age limit prescribed in the case of brothers/step-brother will not apply to bonafide students of recognized educational institutions and to invalids on appropriate certification by Railway Medical Officer.

(ii) Mother includes adoptive mother only in cases in which the mother has legally adopted the Railway employee as a child and has, since adoption, always been recognized as the mother. A railway employee may not obtain free medical attention for this real mother as well as for an adoptive mother.

Sub: Probationers of Organized Railway Services appearing in subsequent Recruitment Examination(s) viz Civil Services Examination etc.

In supersession to the instructions issued vide this office letter of even number dated 28.8.2000, it has now been decided that the probationers of the eight organized Railway Services selected through Civil Services Examination and Engineering Services Examination, will not be granted any kind of long leave for preparation for any subsequent recruitment examination(s) before completing the probationary training and passing the posting examinations.

Accordingly, probationers who join railway service and wish to appear in subsequent recruitment examination(s) should be granted only short leave covering the period up to the exam only and not for preparation for the exam.

For implementing these instructions, Centralized Training Institutes may ensure that every probationer on reporting to the concerned Centralized Training Institute is informed of the above instructions and also that non-compliance of these instructions would be viewed seriously.
