Operation AAHT- On 19.02.2026, a drive was conducted by SI Subhra Dey of RPF West Post ASN along with Const/Shyamal Gope of AHTU/Asansol in Train No. 12942 while it was placed at Platform No. 2 of Asansol Railway Station. During the drive, at about 19.25 hrs one minor girl aged approximately 15 years was found sitting in Coach S-1 of the said train in suspicious circumstances. On interception and enquiry, she disclosed her identity as: Budhani Tudu, F/15 yrs, D/O Rubilal Tudu of Vill: Bhorasare, Sighni, P.S- Jarmundi, Dist: Dumka, Jharkhand – 814118, having PNR No: 6939573343, travelling Ex-Asansol to Viramgam. On further enquiry, the minor girl identified one adult male travelling with her and stated that he was taking her to Viramgam on the pretext of providing employment in a spinning mill. She further stated that she belongs to an economically distressed family and was travelling in search of livelihood. She was unable to specify the exact place or nature of work. On interrogation, the said adult male disclosed his identity as: Meghnath Kapri, M/28 yrs, S/O Dinesh Kapri, of Vill: Siktiya, P.S. Jama, Dist: Dumka, JH-814118. During preliminary questioning, he admitted that he was taking the above minor girl to Viramgam, Gujarat, for engaging her in labour work in a spinning mill at Rajkot, Gujarat, and stated that he receives Rs. 20/- per day per person for arranging such labour. He further stated that he has been engaged in similar activities for the past one year for personal monetary gain. It is also stated that they boarded the said train from Asansol. In view of the above facts and circumstances, and considering the age of the girl and the nature of disclosure, the matter strongly indicates elements of trafficking of a minor for labour exploitation. Accordingly, the said adult male along with the rescued minor girl were detained and de-trained at Asansol Railway Station and subsequently handed over to Asansol

GRPS for registration of appropriate case under relevant provisions of law and the child was handed over to Rly Child Help Desk/ASN for further disposal by GRPs/ASN.
